Chairman Robert Andreola called the February 9, 2022 meeting of the Milford Historical Commission to order at 7:04 pm in Memorial Hall. Motion to accept the minutes as read was made by Pam, seconded by Jim. Motion was unanimous. Masks were mandated at the meeting.

Bob read the article he prepared for submission in the Annual Town Report and went on to say that we have $248.14 remaining in the budget after paying our bills and setting aside money to pay the monthly internet bill.

Bob reminded all members that the State Ethics Commission requires all Board members and Commissioners that they must complete the Conflict of Interest Law and return the Certificate of Completion to the Town Clerk's Office.

Article 34 of Special Town Meeting passed a new By-Law Article 41, Qualification to Serve on Town Boards, Committees, and Commissions. The Conflict of Interest Law should be completed within 30 days, a second notice of 30 days would be given, if not completed by then, the position is vacant and a new person can be appointed.

Bob sent the names, addresses, phone numbers, and email addresses of the Commission members to Jennifer B. Doherty, Local Government Programs Coordinator, at the Massachusetts Historical Commission, as requested.

Anne submitted an article to the MDN and Town Crier welcoming visitors to browse through the Museum and Research Room and enjoy learning some of the town's history.

We will receive $500 more each year in our budget to cover the increased cost of the NHC internet service, thanks to Bob, Rick Villani, Town Administrator, and Tom Brown, Town Accountant.

The security alarm rang Sunday, February 6, when Anne entered the building. Bob Andreola and Carlos Benjamin responded and took care of the problem which was dead batteries in the keypad. Carlos said he will have all the batteries changed.

Thelma Floyd's house is going to be listed for sale on the Web as an antique home that needs repairs, according to Beth Egan, Thelma's granddaughter.

Motion to adjourn was made at 8:32 pm by Jim Miller, seconded by Pam Fields. Motion was unanimous.
